

GLOBAL AWARENESS SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL

NEW BOARD MEMBER

DR. JAY NATHAN HAS JOINED THE GASI BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Through action taken at the annual board meeting held in Budapest, Hungary in May 2016, Dr. Jay Nathan has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Global Awareness Society International

Dr. Nathan is a Professor of Management in the Tobin College of Business at St. John's University in Queens, New York. He is a past President of the Global Awareness Society International and currently serves as the editor in chief for the Journal of Global Awareness. He is active in the Fulbright Program and has been a Fulbright Scholar to Thailand, Poland, Kazakhstan, and Mongolia. He holds the position of Honorable Professor of Karaganda University of Economics, Kazakhstan. He is author/co-author of several books and has published more than one-hundred articles in peer-reviewed journals and proceedings. His recent research book is on Kazakhstan's New Economy, Post-Soviet, Central Asian Industries in a Global Era, published by the University of Scranton Press, distributed by the University of Chicago Press in December of 2012.

Dr. Nathan is passionate about business education and contextualizing his international travel experiences to teaching, service and research in various business decisions, management strategies, international business, human resource capacity and economic developments.

He is a long time member of our Society and has made significant contributions to our mission through the sharing of his research as well as the recruitment of students and faculty colleagues for conference participation. An expanded list of accomplishments and interests may be found at <http://www.stjohns.edu/academics/bio/jay-nathan-phd>.