The mission of the Theatre & Dance Division is to provide a strong undergraduate education in the theory and practice of theatre and dance, to support the University's general education curriculum, and to enhance the cultural life of the campus community. The division's goal is to develop students' working knowledge and application of historical and contemporary theories and practices in performance, design and technology, and dramatic and critical literature. We strive to develop artists who are imaginative critical thinkers and effective communicators producing art that celebrates humanity and challenges complacency.

Dear Dance Lovers, Family, and Friends,

Welcome! The BU Theatre & Dance Division and BU Players are delighted to have you joining us as we present our 10th Annual Dance Minor Concert — Table for One!

The Dance Minor program was founded in 2010, and this year's concert series reveals the excitement and love BU students have for the field of dance. Despite the added challenges present during these Covid times, the caliber of concert work being created and produced by our division faculty, staff, students, and area guest artist continues to reflect the clear investment all hearts and minds have in this program. We congratulate all the students/artists on their fine work creating original artworks, and celebrate these wonderful areas of collaboration among and between working humans!

This year's concert features three series of dance works.

- Series A includes four Dance for the Camera works made by students during the initial phase of the Covid outbreak. These works were made at off-campus sites, and reflect the resourcefulness of our students, and their wonderful film editing skills.
- Series B includes three works performed and filmed on the K.S. Gross Auditorium stage in BU's Carver Hall, taking advantage of the opportunity to include fuller concepts for costume and lighting designs, in addition to a typical stage floor, which impacts movement potential.
- Series C invites students and socially distanced audiences to the Academic Quad to see some live movement; a showcase of four solos and one duet will be presented.

No matter which series you take part in, this year's concert reflects over important societal questions and concerns of the soul raised by our student choreographers. The over-all concert title, Table for One, captures these concerns--often explored individually in life, and reflects upon the isolation many of us have felt throughout the pandemic. These works validate our human experience, yet encourage a hopeful vision of social connectedness in the future. We hope this concert series creates a space for open dialogue and conversations to begin.

This program would not be coming together without the support of many individuals. With sincere gratitude, I thank all of the students, staff, and faculty directly involved in this event for their continued time, energy, patience, and excitement for the Dance Minor program. This gratitude especially extends to Dr. Jim Brown, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, the CoLA staff, and to Abby Manns / Arts in Bloom. It has and continues to take many hands and resources to achieve where we are today, and the joy belongs to many that dance is alive and well on our campus.

In closure, THANK YOU for attending, and we sincerely hope you enjoy the concert! Each dance is like viewing a separate painting. As the form is illusive in nature, we invite you to digest each work slowly, discuss it with friends, colleagues and family members afterward, and see what interpretations and range of favorites linger, shaping your vision of this world we all share.

For further information on the dance courses now available, or the Dance Minor program, feel free to email me directly at jpetry@bloomu.edu.

To LOVE your body is to MOVE your body! Cheers, and live well!

Theatre and Dance at Bloomsburg University

Participation opportunities are available to all BU students.

Classes

Current and incoming Bloomsburg University students in search of General Education Points can take classes in theatre and dance without declaring a major or minor. These classes include Theatre 102: Introduction to Theatre, Theatre 103: Theatre Appreciation, Theatre 112: Fundamentals of Acting, Dance 111: Dance History, Dance 117: Beginning Jazz/Ballet, and Dance 223: Intermediate Jazz.

Production/Crew Opportunities

For every production, including plays, musicals, and the annual dance concert, there are opportunities to work behind the scenes in areas such as costumes, sets, stage crew, stage management, house management, and publicity. Certain tasks on productions can also be used to earn academic credit via the Theatre Practicum (Theatre 108) class. To find out more about getting involved in production work, please contact us: <https://intranet.bloomu.edu/theatre-dance-contact>

Theatre Major Theatre or Dance Minor

If you would like to get more involved in theatre, consider becoming a Theatre Major (with concentrations in Performance, Design/Technology, or Integrated Theatre) or a Theatre or Dance Minor. For information, visit www.bloomu.edu/theatre-dance/ or reach out at <https://intranet.bloomu.edu/theatre-dance-contact> to connect with the appropriate theatre and dance division faculty member.

National Theatre
Honor Society

Alpha Psi Omega is the National Theatre Honor Society for participants in collegiate theatre. The Alpha Cast was founded at Fairmont State College (now Fairmont State University) on August 12, 1925 by Professor Paul F. Opp.

Bloomsburg University is home to the 39th oldest of the 1,074 casts nationwide, identified as the Alpha Omicron cast and inducted its first class on March 3rd, 1928. The 99th pledge class at Bloomsburg University was inducted during the Spring 2020 semester. The class inducted this semester, Spring 2021, will be the 100th pledge class at Bloomsburg University!

Students are selected for membership based on their activities in theatre at BU and their leadership in the BU Players and Theatre & Dance Division.

Meet the Dancers and Crew

Nicole Gagliardi is a senior Communication Sciences and Disorders major with a minor in Dance. She has performed in the 8th Annual Dance Minor Concert as well as performed and choreographed for the 9th Annual Dance Minor Concert.

Sarah Goldstein* is a junior Theatre Arts major with an emphasis in Design/Technology and a minor in Studio Art. She most recently worked as a designer on Project F.A.N.T.A.S.T.I.C.A.L. and works as a Technical Assistant in the Performing Arts Facilities. Previously she has been a Scenic Designer on Much Ado About Murder, Production Designer for The Screen Plays: The Past's a Spy-rus: the Spy-nanigans of Holden Hunt and Jace Jones, Light Board Operator for Everybody and Be More Chill, and Deck Crew for the 9th Annual Dance Minor Concert.

Prof. Ethan H. Krupp* serves as the Director of Theatre and Technical Director for the Bloomsburg University Theatre & Dance Division, as well as a lighting, scenery, properties, and sound designer. He has served as technical director for over 50 BU Players productions. Previous designs for BU Players include Machinal and 12 Angry Jurors, (scenery), anon(ymous) (lighting), and The Arsonists (sound, co-designer). He has also designed for BU Players/Bloomsburg Theatre Ensemble co-productions such as Flood Stories, Too and Hamlet (scenery). During the summer of 2019, he designed lights for Something Grimm—Tales from the Brothers G for BTE.

Prof. Julie Petry is currently in her 12th year of teaching at BU, where she serves as Founder/Director of the Dance Minor program. She holds an MFA from the U. of Wisconsin-Milwaukee (dance) & a BFA from the U. of Arizona where she studied dance, theatre, & music. Julie worked professionally in the Mid-west/Chicago region for over 12 years and to date she's directed, choreographed, &/or performed in well over 150 productions. Career highlights include two Emmy nominations (Regional) for her work with HeartSong Communications, touring nationally with Kenny Rogers, and earning a "Best of New Dances" nod in the festival Dance Chicago. She has worked with Polish, Flamenco, Aerial, Modern, Musical Theatre/Theatre, and Ballet companies, and previously had work produced by Koresh Dance in Philadelphia. Recent projects include serving as a director for BU Players production The Screen Plays & choreographing a work for the dance minors at Bucknell University.

Jada Sommerville is a junior Digital Forensics major and Dance minor. She is the Modern Dance teacher for the Bloomsburg University Dance Ensemble. This is her first Dance Minor Concert.

Katie Tampone is a senior Psychology major and Dance minor. She is President of the BU Dance Ensemble and represented the university as a H.O.W.L. in the Orientation office. Previously, she served as the Dance Ensemble's Fundraising Chair and has taught Musical Theatre and Hip-Hop classes. Katie has been dancing since the age of 5, played the role of Kate in her high school production The Pirates of Penzance, and was a member of their advanced show choir. Her own choreography has been showcased on the Haas stage, BU social media pages, and now the 10th Annual Dance Minor Concert.

Ashley N. Waldraff is a senior Exercise Science major with a minor in Dance. She is a member of the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority and a member of the Dance Ensemble club. Previous roles include: performing in the annual spring and fall Dance Ensemble shows. This will be Ashley's first time performing in the Annual Dance Minor Concert.

Prof. Emily Weisgerber has worked in fashion and costumes for over fifteen years. Her love of sewing and clothes began when she was a child and has been a lifelong passion. She has made dresses in Los Angeles, hats in Seattle and New York, and costumes for Bloomsburg Theatre Ensemble and Bucknell University. She also loves music and runs Endless Records in Bloomsburg with her husband. She is very pleased to have the opportunity to join the Theatre and Dance division of Bloomsburg University this semester as Costume Director.
